

ADVANCED PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

Rehabilitation Consultant – Rehabilitation Counsellor or Psychologist (Tamworth)

- Flexibility in your role
- Supportive team environment
- Professional development allowance
- Competitive remuneration package and incentive scheme
- Relocation assistance and additional leave by negotiation

YOUR ROLE: We are currently looking for a motivated and dynamic professional to assist with our continuing growth and development. This exciting role will see you become a valuable member of one of the largest providers of rehabilitation services in Australia. Your skills and abilities will be rewarded with flexible working arrangements, ongoing and varied professional Development activities and career development opportunities.

APM provides a generous incentive scheme that allows you to be rewarded for the effort and outcomes you achieve with your clients and customers.

You will receive an excellent induction program that continues through ongoing formal and informal support. Your case load will be tailored to allow you to achieve outcomes through the intensive assistance you will provide to your clients. You will benefit from the highly supportive, experienced and dedicated team of Allied Health Professionals who will work with you so that your skills and abilities develop; both personally, and professionally.

You can enjoy a varied case load working with clients and customers to assist them in managing the issues that restrict their ability to return to work:

- Assisting clients with a return to work with new or same employers
- Working with clients with psychological injuries
- Vocational counselling, Transferable Skills Analysis and Vocational Assessment

ABOUT YOU: As a rehabilitation consultant you must have either Rehabilitation Counsellor or Psychology (fully or provisionally registered) qualifications. You will ideally have 1 years' minimum rehab experience with a workplace rehabilitation provider although experienced clinicians and recent graduates are encouraged to apply.

ABOUT US: APM is Australia's leading national private provider of Injury prevention and management services. We recognise the importance of work life balance and the varying demands external to work that our consultants manage, such as family and study, and offers flexible working arrangements.
